CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own, Correspondent.) CANTON, May 14. DISTURBANCE-AT A TERATRE. ' "

Yesterday there were disorderly scenus outside the Tung Hing Theatre which has but recently been opened. It originated in the conduct of number of ruffians who gathered together near the theatre entrance to insult the women as they came from and went into the building. Their unseemly behaviour attracted the attention of the police who endeavoured to drive them from the place. The ruffians, however, were too strong for the police and many of the latter were hurt by stones which were freely thrown. The lamp outside the theatre and several windows in the upper storey were also smashed. Help was at once sent for and before very long a detatchment of the military was on the scene who speedily put the rascals to flight. Many arrests were made and it is to be hoped that the offenders will be severely dealt with.

OFIUM HELLERS. In consequence of several opium seilers secretly evading the new licensing regula-"tions, the Chief of Police has appointed twenty-two detectives to watch the movements of these persons and to assist in the stringent enforcement of the new rules. GREAT FLOODS.

Owing to the greatly flooded state of the North and West Rivers, the natives of the districts along their banks are in great fear of the embankments giving way. Already at least one serious disaster has occurred. An embankment known as Weng Fong collapsed and in consequence the wa ers broke their bounds and caused the fall of several houses. Several lives were lost but full particula s are not yet to hand. Many streets in Ching Yuen are under

Mr Luk Hen Chow, the manager of the Honam Tung Hing Company, and son of the celebrated Kuala Lumpur merchant Luk Yow, has again come forward with schemes of relief for the unfortunate sufferers from the present floods. It will be remembered that last (year under similar circumstances this gentleman was in the forefront of those enga, ed in the work of relief. During the last few days he has spent hundreds of dollars on the purchase of provisions for the use of the homeless and has been an instrument in organising a special relief society to aid these dis-WORKS, WHARVES, treased persons,

(From Our Own Correspondent.) Engaguean, April 16.

EASTER IN THE NORTH.

In Scotland, Easter is a quiet season. It has almost no religious association or the bulk of the people; but is gradually becoming a recognised spring holiday, especialix for those who are something in an office." The outward and visible sign of Easter to most folk is a crowd of mon in rough tweeds carrying pluthoric golf bags. Of late years, bill-climbing has been taken up by a certain class, and the Scottish Mountaineering Club have just had successful rendervous at Fort William, seventy members attacking Bon Nevis on its more difficult sides. Some protty stiff work can be got out of the familiar mountain outside of the regular tourist

The most remarkable point about this Easter is the way in which the boys who are receiving an irregular sort of military education are forcing themselves on public attention. The Baden-Powell Scouts have caught on; the half-brigand, halfalpine uniform, and the idea of scouting the country in search of an enemy seems to have an intense charm for the Tyl Appresses for above : "IWASAKI." youthful imagination. Then there is the Boys' Brigade, with havorsacks, leather belts, and blue and white pill-box cape: two thousand of them paraded on Sunday to hear a sermon, by the Bishop of Bath YOKOHAMA: M. Asada, Esq. and Wolls. If the numbers of the Scouts, the Brigade, and the various cades corps are added together, there are about as many of these boys as there are Territorials in the City of Ediaburgh, -a remarkable fact, which is causing grave searchings of heart among the advocates of Peace and Disarmament. THE I. T. P. CONFESENCE.

From other quarters you will receive an account of the split in the Independent Labour Party at the Edinburgh conference, and the secession from the Council of Mesers Keir Hardie, Ramsay Macdonald, Philip Suos don, and Bruce Glaser. Too much attention has been paid to the matte, by the press, for the reason that there is always a dearth of news at Easter happened to look in at the hall on the day when the trouble took place curious to see what manner of men were these advocates of Socialism naked and unashamed, and was fortunate is being present at the bursting of the bimbshell When the resignations were intimated. there was a stunned silence. The members who had been supporting Mr Grayson's quarrol with the old gang of I.L.P. were astounded at the too great success of their tactics. They appealed to the leaders again and again to withdraw the resignations, but to no effect; and the proceedings terminated; if not in confusion, at least amid a general sense of humiliation. I took some trouble to ascortain the opinion of prominent members of the conference, and all concurred in regarding the split as the finishing stroke to the power of the party as far as the immediate future is concerned. But it is a personal matter, and is of no importance to anybody outside the ranks of the Reds. The squabblings, bickerings, and bitter strife of these Labourists seen only to be oxcelled by the internedine disputes of the Trish Nationalists, and form an ironical comment on the doctrine of the Brotherhood of Man in which he Socialists wrap up their impossible if alluring theories.

MASONIC. The two Masonic Templar bodies bitherto existing in Scotland are now formally incorporated,-the Grand Encampment of the Temple of salta and the Great Priory of the Religious and Military Order of the Temple, A formal deed of agreement was signed after due ceremony, and the Earl of Kintore is the first Grand Muster of the Order, which is denominat, ed, "The Great Priory of the Religious and Military Order of the Tempe in Scotland and the Colonies and Dominions of the British Crown." Both bodies have interesting histories, -about which, how over the outside world is allowed to know. very little. The Grand Encampment represented the old Irish Templars, now extinct, from whom it separated and became independent in 1822. W. It also represents the higher degrees of work by Masonic Lodges in "the eighteenth century. .. The Military and Religious Order was a secession from the above body in 1811.

"DOCTOR" J. M. BARRIE. Mr J. M. Barrie has received another Doctorate, - that of Doctor, of Laws from Edinburgh University. At the Spring Graduation, the novellist-dramatist was the popular hero. He received a great ovation when he ascended the platform, Ludovic Grant allowed himself more than (Continued on Page 8.)

has accordingly been carried out," The Shipbuilding Returns for the quarter ended 31st March, 1907 compiled by Lloyd's Register of Shipping make brighter reading than they have done for a twelvemonth past. They show that, excluding warships, there were under course of construction in the United Kingdom at that date 309 vessels of 912,272 tons gross. This in three strengths, containing 8% : 10% and is about 148,000 tons more than that which was in hand at the end of last quarter, and about 65,000 tons more than was building twelve months ago. Shipbuilding returns often give a better indication than any other detailed Turkish Bath Salt statistics of the real condition of trade in the United Kingdom. If the great Boftens the water, and imparts a delightiron, steel and coal industries are flourishing then it is fairly well with the rest of the country, for these are the WATSON & CO., three principal industries affected by the activity or the slackness of the shipbuilding yards. Of "course" some: allowance must be made for orders placed by far-seeing shipowners who discern in the present time an opreasonable price, vessels which can be operated at a fair profit in the busy days that are yet to come while the usual- wastage by wrecks, collisions, and wearing-out has also to be made up. But even making full allowances for these factors, sufficient remains for [the basing of more confident hopes than were possible this tourist. time last year for a gradual revival in trade and commerce. True, so far as the trade of the United Kingdom concerned, the past quarter only shows Order before you leave so you may receive

Mesers Lamke and Rogge in their Freight. Circular dated 15th May, state :- The freight market has remained in much the same position as last reported, though owing to scarcity of tonnage actual chartering has been confined to a somewhat smaller compass than during the preceding fortnight. Business from algon to this has continued devoid of animation, "liners" being sufficient to handle the few cargoes offering. As however at time of writing the local rice market shows signs of improvement, outside tonnage is sure to be wanted before long. There has been renewed chartering from Saigon-Philippines South is at present practically bare of suiable small-sized vessels. Fr m Saigon to Java a sli ht inquiry has been showing for forward dates, but owners' and charterers ideas proved too widely different to allow of business resulting. Hoilo has had the first augar shipments of the season to North China ports, two steamers having been taken up at fair rates. Further chartering transactions seem probable, as the new crop is described as an excellent one. The recent feverish scrivity from Yangtze ports has slightly abated, still there are sufficient st cks of rice left to warrant the further employment of "outside" tonnige in addition to " liners." Several steamers have been time-chartered up North; and quite a number are being employed there tripwise in the salt trade, securing profitable rates of freight. -- From Newchwang to Canton another fixture has taken placer at 30 cents for usual part cargo. Exporters of beans Newchwang and Talienwan have during the last few days materially raised their prices, and in consequence chartering has temporarily come to a standstill. Coal firm with more demand for tonnage.

Fixtures reported to Hangking at $2 .-and $2,10, and to Canton at $3, - Hongay to Chinking had a settlement at $2.25.
